

PERSONAL

MINISTRIES

ANNUAL WORKSHOP

NOVEMBER 17 – 20, 2023

THEME

Arise, Go – Light the Path – Mission 2024

INTRODUCTION

“Personal Ministries is a facet of the church whose origin can be traced to the beginning of Seventh-day Adventist® history in the 1860s. It endeavors to inspire, motivate, equip, train, and mobilize all members for dynamic Christian service with the conviction that “The church of Christ is organized for service” (Ministry of Healing, p. 148) and “Every son and daughter of God is called to be a missionary; we are called to the service of God and our fellow men” (The Ministry of Healing, p. 395).”

PRESENTERS

PROFILE

Pastor Peter Morris

Pastor Peter Morris loves the Lord. He served as a church Elder and Lay Evangelist Leader for over 15 years. He also served as a Deacon of Men at Caribbean Union College, now the University of the Southern Caribbean. He was a district pastor for over 20 years and also served as Youth Director and Ministerial Secretary at the South Caribbean Conference.

Pastor Morris is married for the past 49 years to Maureen St. Hilaire Morris. He has a son who is married and has two lovely girls, their grandchildren. He is anxiously looking forward to the soon return of Jesus.

PRESENTERS

PROFILE

Pastor Ian D. Morris

Pastor Ian D. Morris is the District Pastor of the Pioneer District of Seventh-day Adventists. Born to Seventh-day Adventist parents, Ivan Morris and the late Vilma Morris. Pastor Morris spent much of his life around the Church and its activities. Yet it was at age 17 that he committed his life to Jesus and began a journey with Him. During this journey, he served 15 years as an elder 10 years as an ordained minister, and he is currently in his 18th year in the pastoral ministry of the Seventh-day Adventists Church.

Pastor Morris believes in the strong traditional values of the Seventh-day Adventists Church because it rests upon a solid biblical foundation. He is certain that the Seventh-day Adventist Church was divinely raised up to proclaim a message to prepare a lost world for His coming. He believes that now is the time to finish the work, by reaching everyone with the everlasting gospel. It is for this reason that he leads a ministry called the Real Bible-Based Ministry, with a television program called "Bible & You" on Synergy TV from 10 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. every Sunday. This ministry is in its third year, reaching thousands for God.

His ministry spanned Trinidad and Tobago, the Caribbean, and the United States (Brooklyn, New York), where he resided with his wife and partner in ministry. After returning to Trinidad, he has pastored in the South East, North West, and Central Zones of Trinidad, and in everything, God has shaped his spiritual outlook and impact.

Thankfully, he is not alone; God has bound hearts, for in 2002 he married his friend but also love of his life, the former Ms. Soushira Liverpool. She has been his partner not only in life, but in ministry. This union is in its 22nd year, and out of it, they have two children, Imani Morris and Shai Morris.

Pastor Ian D. Morris simply wants to partner with God, as He (God) makes Himself great in the earth.

PRESENTERS

PROFILE

Elder Gideon St. Bryce

Elder Gideon St Bryce served for twenty-two years in Youth Ministries at the South Caribbean Conference, both as Assistant Director and Director of the Youth Ministries Department. During this time he led multiple youth community intervention programs. Elder St. Bryce now functions as the Director of Chaplaincy, Public Campus Ministries, and Prison Ministries.

He holds degrees in Public Relation/Journalism, and Mass Communication and he has completed the four units of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) at the College of Pastoral Care and Psychotherapy (CPSP).

He is a credentialed and commissioned worker of the South Caribbean Conference.

Elder St Bryce has been married to Judith St Bryce for the past 35 years, and they are the parents of one young adult son.

His favorite Bible character is Naaman's maid.

He has a passion for youth, he wholeheartedly believes that we are God's remnant church, and he is committed to the mission of God's church.

He posits that people will believe the message we proclaim to the extent that we show love to one another.

Elder St Bryce considers it a privilege to be a worker in God's Church and to have the opportunity to help complete the mission.

PRESENTERS

PROFILE

Eltesia Byron

Eltesia Byron was born on the island of Tobago. At the age of fifteen (15) she accepted Jesus Christ during a crusade conducted by Pastor Leamont Chapman. She was the first person to be converted in her family into the Seventh-day Adventist Church. This caused her to be put out of her parent's home.

In 1982 she completed a Diploma in Bible Work at Caribbean Union College. She was able to successfully pay her tuition by being an industrial worker at the Collage and she also obtained a scholarship.

Sis. Byron is an employee of the South Caribbean Conference, where she has been serving as a Religious Educator for over thirty years (30). She deems it a privilege and an honour to have been called to engage in service for Christ. Her greatest passion is winning souls for Christ.

Sis Byron desires to remain faithful to the call God has given her and to continue to be His humble servant.
